ESSENTIAL INDIAN LEGAL DOCTRINES & PRINCIPLES

1. Natural Justice (Audi Alteram Partem & Nemo Judex In Causa Sua): No person shall be condemned unheard, and no person shall be a judge in his own cause.
2. Res Judicata (Section 11 CPC): A matter once finally adjudicated by a competent court cannot be re-agitated between the same parties.
3. Basic Structure Doctrine: Constitutional amendments violating fundamental core framework are void (Kesavananda Bharati v. State of Kerala).
4. Doctrine of Proportionality: Administrative & legislative measures restricting rights must be strictly proportionate to legitimate state objectives.
5. Promissory Estoppel: State or individual cannot backtrack on promises where the other party acted upon them to their detriment.
